

Did you know that you can further your education through traditional or alternative educational options?

The Young Parent Support Program helps students navigate the multiple challenges of being a teen parent.

The program offers:

- Individualized support services
- Education and career planning
- Quality child care resources
- Access to health care
- Parenting support

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact the Young Parent Support Program staff at 303-326-2160
or email Anne Burris at alburris@aps.k12.co.us.